LETTER OF INTENTION

Greetings Honorable Sir:

It is the intention of the Dominion of Melchizedek to formally apply for admission to the U.N. as an observer or some other status. We have appointed Dr. Benjamin Angueira as our delegate and representative for this endeavor. Dr. Angueira is also our Ambassador at Large for the Caribbean.

The Dominion of Melchizedek is a Ecclesiastical Sovereign Nation, as recognized by several other Nations. The DOM was founded by the purchase of several islands in the Pacific Ocean, in 1990.

There are approximately 100 permanent citizens living on the Islands, with another 500 citizens who live there about 7-9 months each year, depending on the supply of fish that is available.

The DOM has a Constitution, an elected President, elected House of Elders (Legislature), a Police Department, and various other departments that are needed to perform governmental functions. (Additional information can be obtained on our

That at present we have diplomatic relations with the following countries all members of the U.N. Some of whom have granted full diplomatic recognition and allow visa less exit and entry to their country.

Central African Republic
Burkima Faso
Cameroon
Nigeria

At the present time we are working towards getting diplomatic relations with several other U.N. member Nations.

That we will welcome all help and assistance which can be given to Dr. Angueira regarding this matter.

All communications can be directed either to myself at:
